PROGRESS '75

VOLUME IX

The Last Days at Pittsboro begin just like every other day of every other year. Students arrive in cars . . .

on buses . . .

they walk . . .

and then . . .

they wait in the lobby until the 8 o'clock bell rings before going to classes.

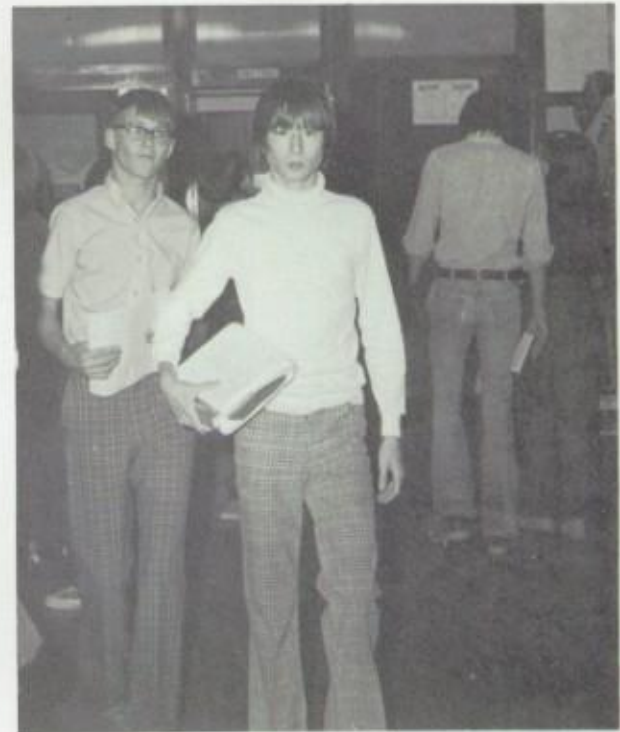

A School Day . . .

has changed very little through the years. We study . . .

hurry to the next class . . .

block the stairs . . .

stand in line . . .

AND . . .

just enjoying ourselves, no matter what we are doing!

But . . .

There have been some changes at dear old Pittsboro during the last few years.

Students dress differently . . .

Girls play volleyball . . .

And earn Letter Jackets . . .

WHILE

Boys play football . . .

And the final change will be Our Pittsboro Burros converting over to the Tri-West Bruins.

Clubs and Activities

The Pittsboro Chapter of Sunshine Society consists of (Front row) Sheri Schaekel, Beverly Merritt, Kim Gibbons, Celisa Smith, Carolyn Osborn, Becky Swain, Lisa Watts, Judy Swain, Jo Ann Swain, Robin Stalling, Phyllis Mitchell, (Second row) Judith Anderson (Sponsor), Karen Meredith, Carol Zollar, Suzi Koontz, Becky Hague, Kim Trent, Vicki Bennett, Beth Hague, Janice Hettenvan, Vikki Hicks, Cindy Newell. (Third row) Dianna Wampner, Norma Bush, Debbie Smith, Terri Bruce, Teri Oberle, Faith Maddy, Myrna Graham, Marci Smith, Danita Riddle, Cheryl Merritt. (Fourth row) Lori Pritchard, Lindy Cain, Patti Hammons, Cheryl Herring, Shari Clarkson, Dixie Smith, Brenda Truax, Kim Riddle, Lucinda Osborn, Brenda Stewart. (Fifth row) Tammy Dayvolt, Ricci Symmonds, Debbie Sparks, Delana Roseboom, Kelly Marks, Tammy Edens, Rhonda Shirrell, Kim McClung, Lynn Smith, Barbara Parker, Cheryl Harris, (Last row) Rhonda Riddle, Tina Sherman, Jeanne Myers, Mary Jane Booker, Sue McKee, Kathy Whitaker, Robyn Symmonds, Diane Reeves, Marla Tucker, Donna Solomon, Lydia Cotherron.

The motto of the Sunshine Society is "others." The Pittsboro SSS members have certainly upheld this motto during the past year. In the fall, 23 new members were initiated into the Society during a very impressive candle ceremony. At Thanksgiving time, the Society lived up to their motto by remembering many shut-ins in the community with a Cheerplate. Their money-making project enabled them to make a generous contribution to the Riley Hospital for Children and entertain their Mothers and Ideal Ladies in the Spring. Perhaps the high-light of the year was the pleasure and happiness the Society brought to the residents of Opportunity Cottage at Danville when they paid a visit at Christmas time and took Santa Claus with them.

Becky and Beth Hague entertained and served as toastmistresses.

Officers: Judy Swain, Sec.; Suzie Eaton, Cor. Sec.; Becky Swain, Pres.; Lisa Watts, Tres.; and Carolyn Osborn, V. Pres.

Mrs. Anderson (sponsor) is presented with flowers.

The past presidents were recognized and presented with gifts.

National Honor Society

The Sophomore initiates were (l. to r.) Dixie Smith, Brenda Truax, Phyllis Mitchell, Billy Alexander, Lindy Cain, Ricci Symmonds, and Judy Swain. Unable to attend were Brian English and Bruce English.

The National Honor Society promotes Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service to and for the students who achieve this honor. The sophomore initiates joined (juniors) Marci Smith, Julie Smith, Judy Reed, Faith Maddy, Ted Paradise, Terry Myers, JoAnn Swain, Cindy Newell, Carolyn Osborn, and Chuck Zollner, and (seniors) Suzi Koontz, Karen Meredith, Celisa Smith, Becky Swain, and Suzie Eaton.

Dixie Smith signs the charter as members of the Honor Society look on.

Special guests at initiation were (l. to r.) past members: Linda Evans Bridges, Ellen Wheatley Pritchard, Mrs. Dorothy G. Lane, past sponsor and founder, and Susan Coleman Jones.

This Is ... An Exercise In Knowledge

The members of the Exercise In Knowledge team this year were Bill O'Connor, Faith Maddy, Ted Paradise, and Mike Hughes.

After many hours of testing and questioning the 1975 Exercise In Knowledge team was chosen by Mr. John Osborn and Miss Sharon Reynolds co-sponsors of the team. Th Pittsboro Students kept the Spirit of our school as it should be even when they were defeated by a sharp Northwest High School team.

Below: After the tension of the day the students, Mr. Osborn, and Miss Reynolds settle down to some hearty eating.

Past Homecoming Queens were invited back to the last homecoming of P.H.S. They were honored at the half-time coronation of the queen. The returning queens were: Alice (Conger) Davis, '69; Nancy (Trimble) Arden, '70; Cathy (Drew) McCullough, '71; Kathy Blevins, '72; and Becky (Albright) Waggoner, '73.

The Junior Play, directed by Miss Sharon Reynolds, was presented on April 11, 1975. (Upper Left)—The Tennyson family, (Jon Heinlein, Wes Alexander, Marci Smith, and Terry Myers) is greeted by Miss Latherby (Faith Maddy) who seems rather upset because of Daniel (Jon Heinlein) ruining her TV commercial. (Upper Right)—Puff (Mike Drew) recites word for word his assignment as Jackie (Wes Alexander), Jeannie (Carolyn Osborn), Carla (Judy Reed), and Linda (Julie Smith) stare in amazement. (Left)—Linda (Julie Smith) tells Danny (Jon Heinlein) that his dancing has improved. (Right)—Rhondora (Joan Huddleston) exclaims that the Tennyson house is haunted. (Lower Left)—Doctor Von Barf (Jeff Wheeler) looks at Danny (Jon Heinlein) and tells him he will give him a sedative to relieve his nervous break-down. (Lower Right)—The cop (David Terrell) arrests Mrs. Latherby (Faith Maddy) for thinking she is the burglar.

Seniors Presented "The Stuck Pot"

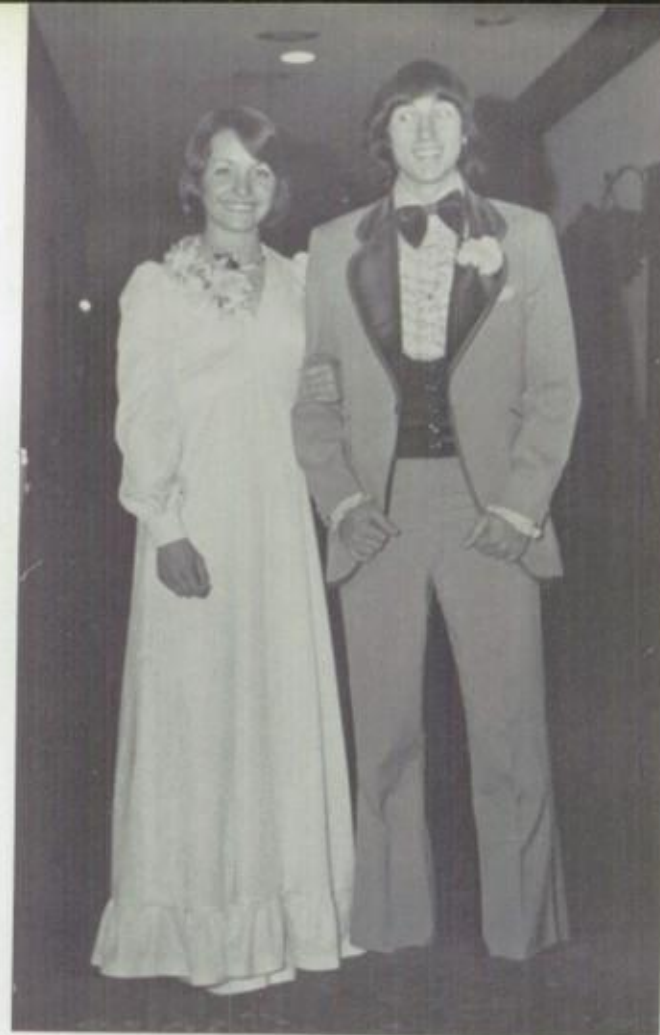

The Senior Play, also directed by Miss Sharon Reynolds, was presented on October 18, 1975. (Upper Left)—Alice Ann, (Kim Trent), Mary Jane (Vicki Bennett), Gail (Celisa Smith), and Kay (Lisa Watts) say a cheer for their boarding school, Worthington Women's Academy. (Upper Right)—Dean of the Academy, Dean Taggart (Karen Meredith) and Lucille Coulter (Cindy Krah) help Amy Caldwell (Robyn Woods) with one of the sudden dizzy spells as Dr. Jacoby (Fred Groves) looks on. (Left)—Edward (Jerry Herring) jumps up with embarrassment as Alice Ann (Kim Trent) tells of her feelings toward him. Alice Ann lets her friends Ida (Kim Gibbons), Julia (Beth Hague), Joan (Janice Hettenvan), Ruth (Becky Swain), and Alberta (Suzi Koontz) smell her new perfume hydrogen sulfide, a smell similar to rotten eggs. A between-scene change takes a lot of work as Jerry Love, Mike Hughes, Vicki Bennett, Dave Flowers, Tim Blacker, Lisa Watts, and Celisa Smith change settings for the next act.

Spirit Soars With P.H.S.

This years pep block was the biggest, best, and loudest. Their spirit showed in every game to back their Burros to obtain the best record Pittsboro has had for several years. "Burro" shirts were obtained for the Sectional and Regional and were worn by every member of the pep block. Becky Hague, President, and the cheerleaders decorated the town and the ball boys homes early in the morning after the Sectional to arouse the spirit of townfolk and student body. "Spirit Week" followed with pep session after pep session. As the year closes out and the Tri-West Bruins come alive, we hope that the "Spirit of 76" will be carried on with the Burro tradition.

The regular season proved to be one of the finest in the history of P.H.S. This team was a fine example of team work and defense. Mike Halsey, Sherman Stogsdill, Mike Drew, Tim Blacker, and Terry Hammons all averaged double figures while Brian English just missed by averaging 8 points. Defense was also a key factor as the Burros kept their defensive average under 60 points the whole year.

The Varsity made it a repeat performance again this year by winning the 1975 Brownsburg Sectional. This time around, the Burros were in full command throughout the final game against the Avon Orioles. The final score of 72-56 indicated the effectiveness Pittsboro had and at one time in the final quarter led by 23 points 61-38. To reach the finals, the Burros defeated a much improved Danville squad 47-46 and won 73-59 over the Mooresville Pioneers. Mike Halsey, Sherman Stogsdill and Terry Hammons were named to the All-Sectional Team. Brian English gained 2nd Team honors.

It was on to Hinkle again, as the Burros faced a sharp-shooting North Central crew in the second game at the Indianapolis Regional. The Panthers came out firing and hit an 80% clip the first half and led 47-33. They ended up shooting a hot 60% for the first game and won 86-59. Pittsboro did play a real fine game but it was overshadowed by the hot-shooting and strong rebounding North Central team. Mike Halsey scored 20 points and was named to the All-Regional 2nd Team.

Morale and Spirit are Kept High

Someone once said, "Behind every great man you'll find a special woman." We say, "Behind every fantastic ball team you'll find enthusiastic cheerleaders." Our cheerleaders are no exception. They possess the qualities that keep the enthusiasm on a high key! Throughout the season, whether winning or losing, their spirit never wavered.

Teachers Boost Spirit With Skit

As a way to boost the student spirit, the teachers and faculty put on a skit for the student body. They portrayed the final home game of the year victims: the Avon Orioles. (upper left) Mrs. Purdy, the Avon radio announcer, enters the gym as the fans and cheerleaders give her a round of boos. After she takes her announcer stand, then comes the Avon cheerleaders, Mr. Ely and Mr. Morphew (upper right). The other women faculty members composed the Avon cheerblock (lower left). The Avon Orioles entered with full force in the bodies of the men faculty (lower left). The Avon Orioles entered with full force in the bodies of the men faculty (lower right). All in all, the skit proved to be very effective as the student body filled up the pep block that evening to back the Burros. The spirit payed off as the Burros defeated the Orioles 76-61.

The special education class contains students from each of the three schools. Each student works at his or her own level, but social skills are of equal importance. Therefore, manners and getting along with others are emphasized as well as academic studies.

Miss Wanda Wilson, the Special Education teacher received her B.A. from Purdue University and is presently attending Butler University.

Miss Wilson assists each student with daily studies.

Teachers and Faculty of P.H.S.

Mrs. Vicky Williams, G.A.A. Sponsor, teaches Health and Girls P.E. She attended I.S.U., where she received her B.S. and M.S.

Mr. George Curry, the high school Industrial Arts teacher graduated from I.S.U., where he received his B.S. and M.S.

Miss Sharon Reynolds, a graduate of Butler University, received her B.A. in English. She is currently teaching Literature, Speech, English, and Sixth Grade Spelling.

Mr. Larry Lamb, our baseball coach, teaches Algebra and Eighth grade math. He attended I.S.U. where he received his B.S. degree.

Mr. Z Our Principal

Mr. Dan Zielinski, the principal of Pittsboro High School is a graduate of Indiana Central College and received his M.S. Degree from Indiana State University. Mr. "Z" as he is fondly known by students, faculty, and friends resides in Brownsburg with his wife Roseann, and children Karen, Danny, Teddy, and Sharon. Mr. "Z" is completing his ninth year as the head man at Pittsboro School and like most principals everywhere, he could probably write a book about his experiences during these years. His main interest however, has been the welfare of his students, always willing to lend a helping hand as well as an encouraging word. The teachers who have served under his administration will remember his cooperative and understanding ways. Next fall, when the new Tri-West High opens its doors, Mr. "Z" will succeed the retiring Mr. Crick as Superintendent of North West Hendricks School. To you, Mr. "Z", we wish the best of luck in your new job.

Mr. David Morphew, who teaches drafting, electronics, and seventh grade shop, also is wrestling and assistant baseball coach. He received his B.S. from Indiana State University.

Mrs. Reva Clancy teaches eighth and ninth grade English. She graduated from Indiana State University, where she received her B.S.

Mrs. Charleen Purdy graduated from Eastern Kentucky University where she received her B.S. and also received her M.A. from Butler. She teaches typing, shorthand and bookkeeping and is the advisor for the yearbook.

Mrs. Sandra Claghorn teaches 6th and 8th math and physics. She received her B.S. from Ball State University.

Mr. Bill Compton, the varsity basketball and track coach, also teaches history, current events, and ninth grade boys phys.-ed. He attended ISU and received his B.S. and M.S. there.

Miss Kathy Brandt received her B.A. from Purdue University. She teaches French I and II.

Mrs. Donna Gentry teaches grade and high school art. She attended Purdue University where she received her B.A.

Mrs. Betty Leak received her B.S. in Home Economics from Purdue University.

Mr. Thomas Anderson, our librarian, graduated from Indiana State University with his B.S. in English and Library Science.

Mrs. Sandra Ely is a reading specialist from grades K-12. She graduated from Evansville and IUPUI with her B.A. and M.A. degrees.

Mr. Larry Sparks, the Jr. Class Sponsor, teaches Economics, Government and Drivers Education. He graduated from Oakland City College and received his M.S. from Indiana State University.

Mrs. Judith Anderson, who received her B.A. and M.A. from Indiana Central College, teaches Science and Biology.

Mr. John Osborn, the Honor Society Sponsor, teaches high school math. He received his A.B. and M.S. from Earlham and Butler.

Mr. Rod Ely, who is the B-team and Golf Coach, also teaches History and Science to seventh and eighth graders. He graduated from the University of Evansville where he received his B.A.

Mr. Robert Lang teaches vocal music to grades one through twelve. He attended Ball University, where he received his B.A.

Miss Barbara Wilson teaches instrumental music to grades six through twelve. She received her B.M. at Indiana University.

Mr. Hartsell Newell, who is also the Guidance Counselor, teaches English. He graduated from Indiana State University, where he received his B.S. and M.S.

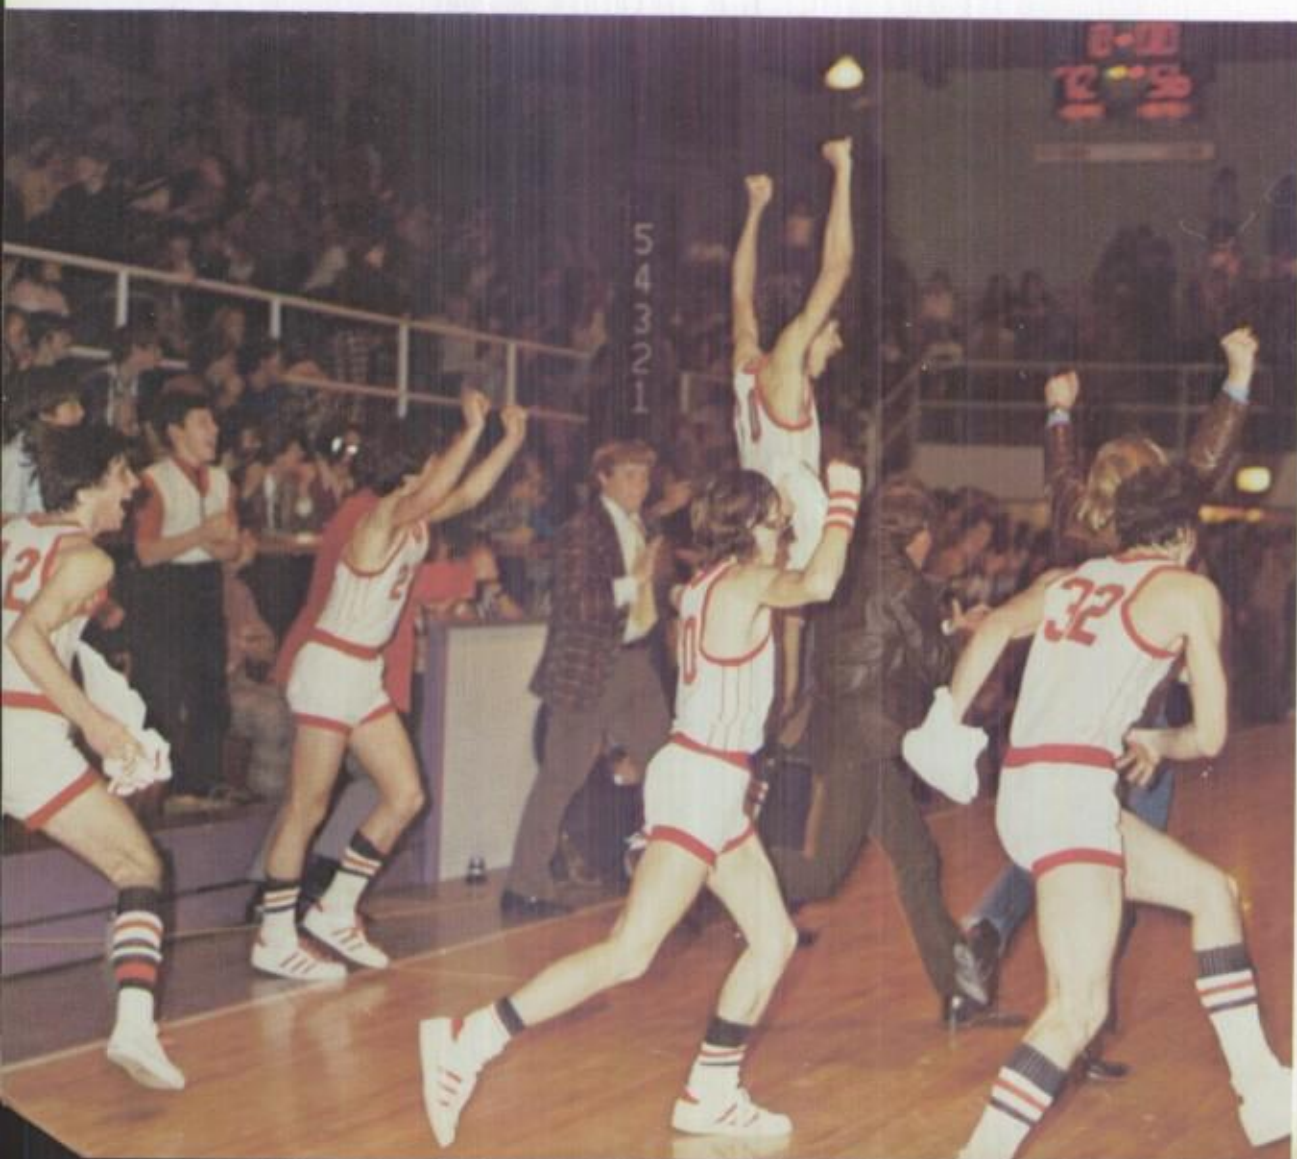

"We're number one" exclaims the team, coaches, cheerleaders, managers, and fans as they pose for their picture. (Left to right, Front Row), Carolyn Osborn, Lucinda Osborn, Kim McClung, Tammy Edens, Cindy Krah, Julie Smith, and Lindy Cain; (Middle Row) Brett Compton, Wes Alexander, Terry Hammons, Bruce English, Jerry Herring, Coach Ely, Mark Cole, and Robert Chandler; (Back Row) Rickey Thomas, Joe McCullough, Dave Flowers, Brian English, John Ashley, Coach Compton, Mike Drew, Tim Blacker, Sherm Stogsdill, Mike Halsey, and Larry Lamb.

Winning Sectional Just As Sweet

The Second Time Around

Last year we were called a "cinderella team." We came from behind to beat a big Avon team by one point in a double overtime. Naturally, our reaction was HOW SWEET IT IS!! Now this year, 1975, Pittsboro reigns supreme at the sectional by defeating Avon in the final game. The crowd seemed to feel that winning the Sectional is just as sweet the second time around. When the draw for the Sectional was announced, Pittsboro was paired with Danville in the opening game. A cold but determined Pittsboro Club met the fired-up Danville group and barely escaped (47-46) to remain in the tourney. Needless to say, the one-point margin acted as a "shot-in-the-arm" for the Burros as they went on to beat Mooresville by a score of 73-59. AND soundly beating a strong Avon team with a 72-56 game to claim the sectional title. A proud Pittsboro team goes into the Regional at Hinkle sporting a 19 and 2 record. This seems a very fitting climax to the history of Pittsboro High School.

Lower left, back in the Burro Gym, Terry Hammons steps front and center and tells the crowd how it feels to be on another winning team while fans and teammates enjoy his speech. Below, Mr. Ely and the team admire the new Pittsboro trophy.

Sectional Win Creates a Fantastic Week

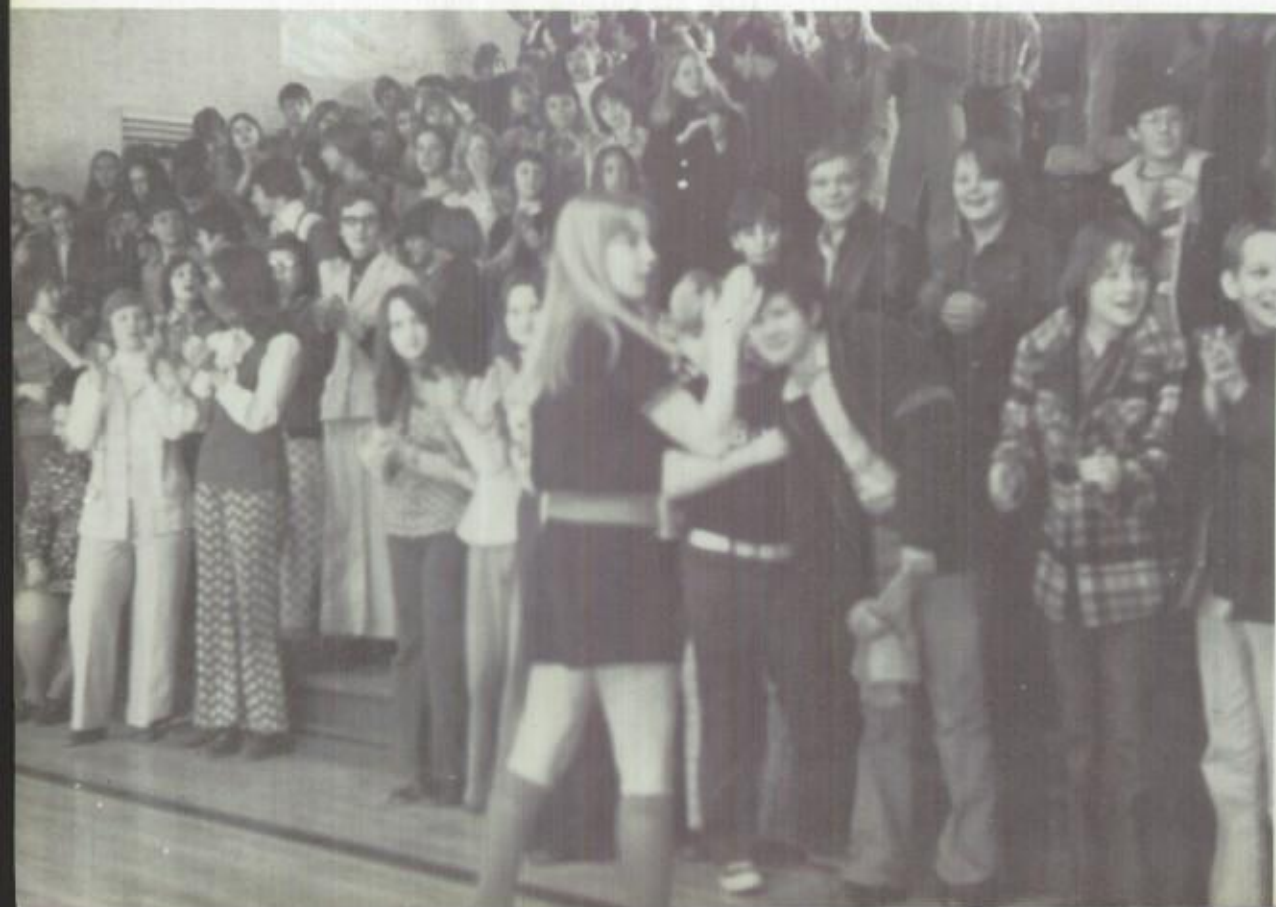

PHS Fans proudly wear the symbols that advertise their support for their team. Note the Burro shirts, the newest fad worn by the pep block.

A proud group of boys and their coach are the guests of honor at a pep session the first day back at school after the sectional. Left to right, Halsey, Sherm, Brian, Wes, Bruce, Joe, Drew, John, Herring, Hammons, Blacker, Coach Compton, and Ric, Manager. Below, every class in school joined in the celebration. Excitement spread like fire, as senior cheerleader, Cindy Krahn leads some of the grade students and faculty in a chant.

To say the week following the sectional was fun but busy, could well be the understatement of the year. There was a one-day vacation from classes after a thunderous pep session. Needless to say, the high school students went home. They formed a caravan and buzzed the other county schools. Then back to school to plan for the Regionals. Tickets were sold to fans of all ages, posters of every type and description were made and decorated the halls and gym and there were pep sessions for all. And of course we still worked, as teachers continued to give tests and assign homework. But it was worth it all just to celebrate a sectional win.

Mr. Zielinski accepts the trophy for Pittsboro High School and expresses his best wishes for continued success in the Regionals.

A few of the loyal Burro fans are shown here as, they laugh and cheer and express their loyalty to the team. This is only a small portion of the fans who showed up for the "big Pep Session" the night before the Regionals.

The last Pep Session

"When the ball goes through the net, . . ." explains Coach Compton as he demonstrates the roar some of the fans have used all seasons when a foul shot was made.

Bob Herring, a Pittsboro Alumni, presents a memento to each member of the team, the cheerleaders, and the coaches. They received a sterling ID Bracelet with the inscription "PHS LAST CHAMPS."

Excitement Prevails

As Burros Go To Regionals

The cars and buses shown above are only a few of the 115 that formed a caravan on that cold snowy Saturday for the trip to Hinkle Field House. The air was alive with excitement as fans in decorated cars and dressed in red, white, and black showed up to back the Burros.

At Hinkle, the Pittsboro Burros have just been introduced to a full house as the Champs from the Brownsburg Sectional.

Winning a sectional brings to any community the feeling of pride but when that community is Pittsboro and the end of a school era is near, that feeling spreads like "wild fire" as students get in the spirit of things with their "Burro" shirts and hats. Grades one through twelve became involved in decorating the school with every type of poster imaginable. This spirit carried over to the alumni as former students brought out their letter jackets and class sweaters and proudly wore them to the Regional. Though Pittsboro was the smallest school there (and the people's choice) it was evident that enthusiasm was at its peak as 115 cars, 2 fan buses, plus the team formed a caravan for the trip to Hinkle to face one of the larger schools in the state. The team did not lose their poise and fought to the end, to be over-powered by the very strong North Central Panthers. The final score of 86-59 was not in our favor but the heart of every Pittsboro fan at Hinkle as well as the few left at home was filled with praise for the boys who played so well on the last Pittsboro High School team.

Burro Action At Hinkle

Below left, "Oh! Those long arms," says Mike Halsey as he shoots over North Central player. Right, Terry Hammons is fouled by North Central player as he goes for a loose ball. With time running out in the game, Jerry Herring comes through with the last field goal ever to be scored for Pittsboro High School.

Last Home Game Brings Back

Seniors boosted spirit for the last home game with their poster and picture of "J.J."

The last basketball game ever to be played in a Pittsboro Gymnasium was February 14, 1975. This was a very special event and much planning had gone into the pre-game activities. Weeks before, letters and news items had gone out to past principals, coaches, and alumni inviting them to attend the game. The alumni arrived early to a special coffee to renew old acquaintances and view all the pictures collected and displayed by members of the alumni. At half-time, ex-principals and coaches were introduced and alumni band members participated in playing the school song. There was a full house in attendance by 6:45 the fire marshall closed the doors, there was just no standing room left. This last game was between the Pittsboro Burros and the Avon Orioles. The Burros proceeded to entertain the visiting alumni by beating Avon 71 to 61. It is only fitting to remark at this time, that the first game played in the Pittsboro gym was November 3, 1950 with Avon and the score was 37 to 38 in Avon's favor. It was really a night to remember—the Last Home Game at Pittsboro.

Sport trophies and pictures were brought back by past alumni to be put on display in the elementary library before the game. Alumni from all classes were there to reminisce with others. Refreshments were provided and served by the senior girls.

Left, Mr. Livengood and members of his fourth grade class are all smiles as they pose for their picture. Right, Elementary students enjoy themselves at a convocation in the gymnasium.

A Special Staff

Keeping busy during the school day is no problem for these members of our school staff. Left, Maxine Toney, Jeanette Terrell, Charlene Alexander, and Bernadine Carter prepare meals for the students. Right, Dan Abney spends his time completing his share of the janitorial duties around Pittsboro School.

Each school day, regardless of the weather, finds the big yellow buses going to and from the school. The drivers who perform this task are (front row) Bill Stevenson, Bill Alexander, and Harold Smith. (Back Row) Marion Linton, Paul Lindley, Frank McClung, and Lloyd O'Donnell.

Teachers' Aide and Secretaries Have Busy Days

Above, Mrs. Roseann Zielinski serves as an aide to the elementary teachers at Pittsboro. In addition to her many duties at school, she is working toward degree from Marian College. Right, Mrs. Betty Niggel is Secretary to the Principal at Pittsboro. Lunch reports, counting money, writing letters and various other activities consume a big part of her days, but she still manages to find time for alumni and community activities.

Being secretary to the Superintendent of North-west Hendricks provides Mrs. Anna Lee Martin with many interesting and exciting experiences.

North-West Hendricks School Board

After forty-one years in the teaching profession, Mr. John Crick is planning to retire in June. During these years, he has been associated with many schools and communities. His teaching career began in his hometown of Colfax, Indiana. His experience in the classrooms of Colfax, Cayuga and Kingman involved such subjects as Science, Math, and Industrial Arts. In the earlier days of his career he combined his principal's job with that of head coach at Jefferson (Clinton County) and Kingman. Mr. Crick also served as principal of Granville Wells School at Jamestown and New Market High School. He had served as Superintendent of Montgomery County Schools and at Sheridan before coming to Hendricks County. On May 15, about 165 friends gathered at Holly Hock Hill Restaurant in Indianapolis to honor Mr. Crick for his dedication to the profession. Mr. Crick and his wife Earlene, plan to remain in Pittsboro after his retirement but he hopes to play some golf and spend time travelling around the country.

Pittsboro High School History

In Retrospect

The history of Pittsboro High School is more than a collection of dates and statistics which inform readers of its beginning, growth, and transition into a more complex system. This is, rather, an attempt to picture an era in the life of this community and describe school days which are so much a part of the memory of every man, woman, boy, or girl who were pupils in our school. Omissions and mistakes may occur in this narrative, but its main purpose is to create a certain nostalgia in the heart of every graduate, knowing that this is the last year for the existence of Pittsboro High School. For several years we have been a part of "Tri-West Hendricks High School" in name, but now in a few months it will be a reality.

Our Beginnings

When the earliest settlers in Middle Township, Hendricks County, bought land and built their homes, which in most cases were simple cabins, their first concern was the establishment of Churches, the next, provision for the education of their children. Soon log or frame one room buildings were erected, followed in a few years by one or two room brick buildings.

The first school in Middle Township was taught in 1835 by a man called John Lineberry who received a salary of $10 a month. The school was located about 2 miles south of Pittsboro on the farm of Samuel Hill, probably near the present home of Tom and Janet Love. He had 15 pupils. There is a record of another early school in 1837 taught by a man named Elias Leach, in a cabin one mile northeast of Pittsboro on the Warrick Farm. The building was later moved and is said to be part of a barn on the Ernest Baldauf farm. Boys and girls in the neighborhood attended the nearest school.

Under Indiana's constitution of 1852, the civil township was the school unit and taxes were levied for school purposes. Within 5 years Middle Township had built nine school houses. Miss Eva Pebworth, prominent primary teacher and an authority in local history, identified some of these schools and their locations. (Miss Pebworth is an aunt of Mrs. Edna McClung). She mentioned the Hughes School, on the farm of Charles Graham; Caledonia, on the south west corner of the Edgar Parker farm; Pierson, in the neighborhood of Harold Wayne Broyles home; Quebec, standing south of the Alvin Swain home; Spicklepoint, south of the Boone County line, north of former Troth home; Tamarack, on the farm belonging to Catherine Coleman; and two others which are still standing, Tout School on the farm of Jay Warren; Number 3 on the Frank McClung farm, east of Harold Waters home. It is said that at one time country schools dotted the township, proving the eagerness of children and young people for an education. There were also Subscription Schools, made up of pupils who paid a certain sum for a few weeks of extra teaching during the summer months. Mrs. Nelle Weaver taught a subscription school at Spicklepoint when she was 15 years old for the sum of $1.50 per pupil.

The following is a bid on the building of a school house. The lowest bidder was a man by the name of Dennis Clark. His bid was $274.25.

"Notice"

"I will sell at public auction on May 4, 1860, in the town of Pittsboro, to the lowest bidder, the building of a school house, said house to be 22 by 28 feet; studding 10 feet long with center sill. Seven windows, 12 lights, 10 by 12 glass with sufficient number of seats and desks; 2 coats of paint on the outside and black boards on the inside, the builder to furnish all good material, except nails, glass, and locks which will be furnished by the trustee. Said work to be done in a good and workmanlike manner by November 1, 1860."

The addition of desks and blackboards marked quite an improvement as pupils had used their own slates and sat on benches made of split logs. The teachers all had the same motto, "Spare the rod and spoil the child." Their word was law and when a child was punished at school, he usually received another one at home. School terms seldom exceeded 3 months; then in 1873 were lengthened to 5 months. Teachers pay was usually about $2.00 a day, was increased slightly during these early years.

First School In Pittsboro

The town of Pittsboro was laid out in 1834, but there is no record of a school in the town until about 1860 when a teacher by the name of B.B. Freeman was paid $44.32. Later in that year, G.I. Frenyear was paid $60 for teaching. The school was located west of the present Methodist Church at the intersection of Church and Meridian. This is where the children of Pittsboro went to school during the Civil War. The first school picture ever taken in Middle Township is one of this school and is now in the possession of Mrs. Julia Dillon Miller, whose grandfather, Jacob Hale was one of the pupils.

Second School In Pittsboro

This one room school was soon outgrown by the increasing population in Pittsboro. The township bought a frame building in the south part of Pittsboro, the Wayne Smith property. It belonged to the Pittsboro Christian Church, built in 1854, but outgrown by the congregation which moved to the present site on North Maple Street. The building 48 by 54 feet was divided into class rooms and used until 1879.

Third School In Pittsboro (1879-1913)

By 1879, another move had been made, this time into a spacious new brick building in the east end of Pittsboro, on what is now the location of the Carl Marker home. Almost a century ago, this was a "deluxe" edifice, two stories, two big classrooms on each floor, wide halls and a stairway leading up on each side to the second floor, big cloak rooms, wide window sills just perfect for the depositing of lunch buckets and baskets, high windows with lots of light, black boards on at least two sides of the room. What matter if the big cast iron stoves roasted those who sat nearby, while the others suffered from chills? There was always the metal shield which distributed the heat and the coal bucket was always in evidence. Once in a while that was a convenient spitting place for the more advanced boys who were sneaking chawing tobaccor. Outside was an old iron pump with its handy tin cup. In the front yard were beautiful shade trees and in back a play ground of no mean proportions. Two big rocks in the front yard made a wonderful dining spot in good weather. The school bell which called both the willing and unwilling to school, the old Cooper shop annexed to the north of the building to accommodate the overflow, the fun of sneakily partaking of Mr. Walters apples on one side of the fence and Mrs. Holleys turnips on the other side are but memories.

Boys and Girls usually terminated their education when they graduated from the 8th grade, as they could go no farther, except college. In 1884 these are the first graduates from the 8th grade: Hollis Weaver, Mamie Reynolds, Benjamin Hoak, Virgil Tout, Louise Fowler, Everett Turner, and Will Wills. Their picture shows them to be handsome young people all of whom distinguished themselves in some way.

It was not until 1894 that steps were taken to form a high school in our town. The trustee was a small, energetic man with progressive ideas, Enos Hornaday. He was a Civil War Veteran who was ambitious for his township and county, but there were many problems in establishing this school of higher learning. First: "Who would be the teacher?" "Where would the high school meet?" It was a known fact that there was no available space in the school in the east end of town. But the boys and girls of 1894 were determined to have a high school.

First of all, there was Miss Mamie (Mary) Reynolds who was considered the smartest girl ever to attend Pittsboro School. She had attended Central Normal College where she graduated with honors and had taught there several terms. She consented to be the first principal of the new high school. A hall over the Brumfield Store, known as the GAR Hall, could be used for the time being and with the installation of tables and chairs and other meager equipment, the first Pittsboro High School was off to a flying start. Miss Mamie's favorite song was "There is Sunshine in my Soul Today" and it was often sung for morning exercises. Somewhere there must be a record of what that early teacher was paid, but money was not very important to her as she was eager to share her knowledge with those enterprising young students.

It is important that a record of those first pupils be kept. The following is the list which appears on the first picture taken of the group in 1894. When possible the names of their descendants, who are graduates, are also listed:

OSCAR REYNOLDS—father of George Reynolds and Anna Lou O'Donnell. His granddaughter, Sharon Reynolds, is a teacher in Pittsboro High School. Grandsons are Larry and Terry O'Donnell, Bill and Steve Reynolds.

NORMAN WORRELL—father of Dorothy Worrell Watson, Doris Cline and Woodrow Worrell.

CARY JOHNSON KIRK—mother of George and John Kirk, and Ruth Servies. Grandmother of Glen Servies.

JENNIE (JANE) HALFAKER SLAGLE—mother of Vivian Slagle Myers.

WILLIE WORRELL

HARRY HOAK

GRACE BRUMFIELD HENSLEY—Aunt of Jon Bromfield, TV star.

EFFIE WILLS WATERS—mother of Lucille Waters Wood, Leon Waters Gregg, Harold Waters, Hollis Waters, grandmother of Charles Waters, Mary Lou Waters Fox, Duane and Donald Waters.

MARY (MOLLIE) TOUT ASHBY—mother of Blanche Ashby, Inis Ashby Bach, Ruth Ashby, Hollis Ashby, and Clarence (Babe) Ashby.

DAISE DILLON BUERGELIN—aunt of Edgar Parker, Chester Parker, Marvin Weaver and Frances Fisher.

GRACE JANES HYER—sister of Alice Janes Kirk.

ALICE JANES KIRK—mother of Mary Kirk Jordan, Claire Kirk West, Sam Kirk, Morris Kirk and Wallace Kirk. None of them graduated from PHS.

SALLIE PHILLIPS WATTS—mother of Melville, Necillus and Hazel Watts, aunt of Elizabeth Yeager Dillon.

CHARLES KRESS—uncl of Carroll Kress and Crystal Kress Halfaker.

IDA JORDAN DARNELL—sister of Cary Jordan Kirk, mother of Margaret Martin.

NORA WILLS DUDLEY—aunt of Maxine Wills Carter, Jean Myers, Lester Wills, Lawrence Junken, Elmer, Marvin and Wayne Wills.

ELSIE RICH McCOUN

JAMES FLAHERTY—afterward a high official in Fidelity Trust Company in Indianapolis.

EDGAR BEAMAN—father of Doris Beaman, Lawrence Beaman, Edgar Eugene Beaman and Frances Beaman Parsons.

CHARLES JONES

Miss Mamie Reynolds continued to be the teacher for the first two terms. After the first year over Brumfield's store, the high school was moved to the hall over the Sawyer block, (the present storehouse of the Gregory store) on the south west corner of the intersection. Professor A.L.H. Miller became principal. In the fall of 1897, the high school was finally moved to the public school building in the east end of town and it remained there until 1912 when the building known as school number 6, was condemned and torn down. 1897 was a momentous year in the history of the high school for the first class graduated: Oscar Reynolds, Charles Kress, James Flaherty, Normand Worrell and Maude Hughes Newman.

Maude had the distinction of being the first girl in Indiana graduated from a certified high school. Two members of this class lived to observe the 50th year of their graduation, and were honored with a special program at the Alumni Banquet, and presented with a volume of Ernie Pyle's books. They were Norman Worrell and Maude Newman.

In 1898, under the principalship of Professor J.M. Matheny, another class of graduated, 4 boys and a girl: Tom L. Dillon, Murat Keeney, Fred Worrell, Dr. Aubrey Pebworth and Miss Mary Dugan. Miss Dugan was the last surviving member having died a year ago. Teachers during these early years include, in addition to the ones named, J.C. Smith, F.C. Thomas, T.C. O'Mara, John Moore, and John Sullivan.

Graduation exercises were always a very important social affair as well as an exhibition of high caliber education. Formal programs were sent to friends containing a list of faculty members and the entire program. The local paper, "The Pittsboro Sun" always gave eloquent descriptions of these impressive ceremonies. Usually held in the Christian Church due to its being larger, the procession of faculty and graduates entered to a burst of music, (sometimes violin music by the Montani Brothers of Indianapolis.) In the program of 1898, County Superintendent J.C. Hostetter, Trustee Brumfield, and Professor Matheny added dignity to the procession. Invocation was by Professor Alonzo Norman of Central Normal College. Following are the speeches which the graduates of 1898 "declaimed" so impressively. Dr. Aubrey Pebworth spoke on "The Mighty Hopes that Make Us Men." Tom L. Dillon ably discusses, according to the news item, "The Mountains Would Not Go to Mohammed, so He Must Go to the Mountains." Fred Worrell who was destined to die while still a very young man spoke on "The Thermopylae of Life," emphasizing the necessity of a good education to be a winner in the struggle of life. Murat Keeney was the hit of the evening with his subject "The Mill Streams that Turn the Clappers of the World, Arise in Solitary Places." Miss Mary Dugan dealt with social questions on the theme "More Worship the Rising than the Setting Sun."

The old building, Number 6, erected in 1879 was showing definite signs of deterioration by the middle of 1900's and there was agitation for a new building. Richard Lee Dillon, trustee, thought the school should be more centrally located so he selected the present site, a very unpopular choice with most of the tax payers who called it a frog pond because of the poor drainage. Construction was begun and the cornerstone was laid in the summer of 1913. It was a gala day for Pittsboro, with a speaking, a band and a parade from the old building in the east end of town to the new structure.

In September 1913 the high school started in the long frame building called the Cooper shop which had been used as an annex. There were 27 pupils, 16 freshman, 5 sophomores, 4 juniors and 2 seniors. James William Westerfield was principal and Edith McClung, an alumni from PHS was teacher of Latin, English and History. It was fun for the pupils with 2 teachers conducting classes at the same time. In spite of the confusion, occasionally boys went to sleep and dropped their books in the coal bucket. Or the Physics class placed their equipment to pump water into Mr. Westerfield's "stiff Katie". (A hat)

The new building was completed by the New Year and the grades as well as high school made the big move. It was the finest building anyone had ever seen. Four large classrooms downstairs were for the grades, (2 grades to each room). Two large class rooms and the long assembly room upstairs were used by the high school. There was a stage for plays, small rooms for offices, spacious halls and wide stairs, a well equipped Domestic Science and playroom in the basement. A new Claypool piano was purchased from proceeds made from a production "Abe Martin's Wedding" put on by parents and friends of the school. Box suppers, beauty contests, and other entertainments brought in more money for added equipment. Credit can be given to Mr. Dillon for his good judgment and excellent choice of materials. The grade building although 52 years old, has served well.

Although the enrollment was small, Pittsboro entered all the county contests and won first in most of them. One girl took drama lessons in Indianapolis and won first with "Ben Hur's Chariot Race"; Paul Jordan sang "When the Bell in the Light House Rings Ding Dong" and won county wide fame; Carroll McDonald, a tall senior, excelled in many things, singing orations, and did equally well with high jump and shot put. Sarah McClain Money was the music teacher during those years and she has been followed by many outstanding music teachers to whose dedication and interest the students owe much of the success they have had in county musicals, district and state contests. We mention Mrs. Lucille McRoberts Baker, Miss May Nennecker, Mrs. Aleta Thompson Schultz, Miss Barbara Beatty. The present teachers, Miss Barbara Wilson and Mr. Robert Lang are setting high standards for music students.

Another era began for Pittsboro High School in 1921 when the present high school building was completed. Mr. Otha Dale was trustee and there had been a big debate about whether to build or not to build. Classes met in the fall before the building was finished and teachers and pupils had to compete with the noise of hammers and the smell of new plaster and paint.

In due time, everything was finished and it seemed very plush, with a large stage for plays, two large assemblies, a Commerce Department, a well equipped kitchen and a large room in the basement for recreation, now the cafeteria. The only criticism was the formation of the Junior High School when the 7th & 8th grades were brought into the high school. Protests were loud and long by those who thought their children were not getting the proper amount of time for English, Literature, and Spelling, which previously had been taught daily, but now 2 days a week. Complaints that high school students couldn't read blamed it on the "new fangled" Junior high school.

Teachers in the teens, and 20's were Otha Nichols, Principal, Roy Leak, Helen Webb, Mayme Nichols Brill (still living), Betty Guthrie, Genevieve Allen, C.M. Spall, Milby Stroud, Willa Swain, Josephine McCord Stevenson, L.V. Phillips, George Russell Hamilton, Shirle Essig, Alice Piersol, Claude Linton, Blanche Ashby, Frances Weaver Fisher, Leslie Lewis, Paul Linton, Katie Paige, Everett Watson, Frank Glen, Otho Breck, Ione Gentry, Mary Lewis, Jeanette Hampton, Mr. McNamara, Cecil Kelso, and Mr. Glenney who sued the township for his pay.

One principal remembered was Lee Ezra Michael who believed that students should concentrate on preparing lessons for the next day. He had very definite ideas and intended that the seniors should spend their money for a curtain for the stage. The seniors had different ideas. It being the era of the Ku Klux Klan, the wave of Patriotism swept over the seniors who finally purchased a large American flag and a Bible which cost $22.00, an unheard of price then. Professor John Teter followed Mr. Michael; he was a lover of poetry and added a lovely daughter to the ranks of students.

During the trusteeship of Robert Parker, two teachers came to Pittsboro High School who may well be added to the Hall of Fame: Earl Freeman and Glen Staton; and the latter remained for many years and is affectionately regarded by all students who ever went to school to him. He was friend, counselor, and teacher. Another worthy addition to the faculty in the twenties was Albert Ross Williams, a graduate of Earlham; he became coach and led the team to victory in the sectional tourney in 1926. He was a good public speaker and added talent and enthusiasm to all school activities. From Pittsboro he went to teach at Manual Training H.S. At present he and his wife are residents of the Methodist Home at Franklin.

Former pupils will recall many funny incidents which were a very vital part of school. There was the day, for instance, when the county superintendent and other school dignitaries were invited to visit our school. That was always an important and extremely stiff-necked occasion with all students on their very best behavior. The night before the visit some fun loving "naturalist" had sneaked into the building and literally anointed the desks with skunk oil which is noted for its pungent smell. Needless to relate, the visiting day was postponed. Then the birds! A whole bevy of them or so it seemed, though we later found there was only one or two, were turned loose in the auditorium and no one would confess to guilt. A real trial was held with George Reitzel, County Superintendent, present, but to this day, it remains a dark secret.

It was not unusual to have a few fisticuffs between teacher and student, for there were no laws then against sparing the rod. It was an unsettling sight to see a teacher apparently tryint to choke a big boy, or bending him back over the stair rail in an effort to enforce obedience. There seems to be no record of any permanent injury resulting from such "run-ins". Whippings, shakings, and suspensions, to say nothing of irate glares were the order of the day. If a kid got a "whuppin" at school, another one awaited him at home. That was long before the rights of the individual were recognized. Teachers were fully justified in disciplining pupils, it was part of their education.

In 1926, John Paul Girard became principal and stayed for 7 years, much loved by faculty, students and patrons. He and wife were workers in church and community. Other faculty members employed by Harold Knetzer, trustee, during the 30's were Mae Miller, Gail Troyer, Verna and Lynn Turner, Esther McCord, May Nennecker, Helen Haynes Williams, Dessie Miles Martin, Virginia Vannice, Dorothy Corbin and Hortense Guthrie.

Jewell Vaughan followed Mr. Girard, coming in 1934, and remaining until he became Hendricks County Superintendent. Ralph Black, hired by Oder Pierson, trustee, then became principal and served ably for 8 years. School felt the impact of World War II with rationing and shortages. Many teachers had entered other areas of work and it was more difficult to hire teachers. Some who were here during this period were Oren Stowers, principal, Mary Bailey, Irene Simpser, Elsa Smelser Majors, Ammy Pfeiffer, Lucille McRoberts Baker, Thelma Clem, Herbert Klausmeier, Virginia Buchanan, Altha Guernsey Leak, Henrietta Davis, Mrs. Nola Stowers, later Pete Fowler, Mrs. Ruth Hess, Lowell (Bill) Kirtley, Robert Leedy, both fine coaches and excellent teachers.

In 1945 while Edgar Parker was trustee, William Logan became principal, remaining 10 years. He was a man of many talents, among them the ability to get along well with both teachers and pupils. Under his guidance, the Hot Lunch program got off to a good start. This plan had been under consideration for some time, having been advanced by the Farm Bureau in order to utilize surplus farm products. For almost 30 years it has been in successful operation, at present feeding on the average of 430 daily. Excellent assistance in the kitchen, good managers and wonderful cooks have made the cafeteria a great success. Faculty members during this period were Bernie Eggers, Mrs. Zelma Heinig, Mrs. Dorothy Lane, Mrs. Juanita Tanselle William Schleifer, Mrs. Virginia Michael, Jewel Michael, Mrs. Bennie Mae McCalment, Harry Henderson, Mrs. Reva Clancy, Carl Jackson, Mr. Obrien, Jack Bradford. Mrs. Heinig who was employed by trustee Parker in 1946 has the distinction of teaching 20 years, then added 8 more years as a 4-H Club leader. She and Glen Staton served here longer than any other teachers. (High School)

In 1950 while Hildon Ayers was trustee, a new gym was built and dedicated. It was a much needed facility, erected between the grade and high school buildings almost as if it had been previously planned. The maple floor laid at a cost of $5,000 has lasted through many sandings and refinishings, since the gym has been used for recreation during the summer months. Since the population of the community has grown so much in the last several years, the seating capacity which seemed so adequate in the 50's and early 60's is being outgrown as there is a "full house" at every ball game. The gym has been the center of many activities: plays, banquets, community meetings, and commencements have been held there. It will be remembered that the speaker at the dedication of the new gym was L.V. Phillips, former principal of our school, who is at this time commissioner of the Indiana High School Athletic Association.

There was an acute need for additional classrooms. During the trusteeship of Merle Hendricks, two class rooms on the second floor of the Grade Building were remodeled and five new classrooms, with rest rooms and furnace, were added west of the gym and connected to it with a long hall, at a cost of about $105,000.00. Later the school board added more rooms, making the elementary school very attractive, convenient, and adequate. It is possible with this new arrangement to load and unload school buses on the west side of the building where there is ample space.

The history of athletics in Pittsboro School would make a separate volume in itself. From the early days when Loyal Schenck, a diminutive and well loved "boy" was quarterback on Pittsboro's football team, to the present time when coach Bill Compton has produced winning teams, the community is very proud, not only of the victories won, but of the attitudes, good sportsmanship, courtesy on the part of the fans, team work, and loyalty to our school.

There were the days when there was no gym, just the great out-of-doors to practice in and neighboring gyms to use for games. Then some of the players of that period were Edwin Terrell, Roy Fisher, Thomas Feeney, Carroll McDonald, Percy Fowler, Omer Harlan, Ernest Jones, and Paul Jordan. At the same time there was a girls team that shocked the community by appearing in black bloomers.

In 1919 a group of public spirited men organized a stock company and built a big wooden gym west and south of the grade building. Later, in 1939 while Harold Knetzer was trustee, the township bought it for $1500. It was the best gym in the county used by the neighboring teams, even Central Normal College. The first home game played in the new gym was in January, 1920 against Fairland, Indiana with a victory for Pittsboro. Glen Hovermale was coach, C.M. Spall principal and players were Paul Robbins, Marvin Weaver, Steve Bowman, Harry Hession, John Halfaker, Edward Ellis, Charles Swain, Gene Carter, Babe Ashby, and Byron Yeager.

There was the team of 1922 that made basketball history by defeating Martinsville in the sectional at Mooresville. (That was the age before county tourneys.) Shirle Essig was principal, Thomas Carmichael was coach. Pittsboro went en masse to Bloomington the next week to see the team play Manual. Members of the team were Charles Swain, Horace Swails, Eugene Carter, Paul Robbins, Byron Elmore, Joe Ray Cowley, Buren Sallee, Carl and Earl Schenck.

In 1926, Pittsboro again won the sectional tourney. Members of the team were: Robert Lindley, Wilfred Poland, Harold Brown, Carroll Kress, Paul Ditzenberger, with subs, Russell Powell, Edward Cowley, Vern Schenck, Kenneth Williams, Marvin Willis and Maurice Johnson. Kress was high point man of the season with 177 points. He was also chosen captain of the All-Hendricks County Team as the outstanding player of the tourney. John Teter was principal and Ross Williams was coach.

Winning is a continuing process with Pittsboro basketball teams. Glenn Hovermale was coach in 1919-20, 20-21, Tommy Carmichael in 1921-22, 22-23, Frank Glenn in 1923-24, Otha Breck in 1924-25, Ross Williams in 1925-26, 26-27, and 27-28, Pete Fowler in 1928-29, 29-30, Lynn Turner in 1930-31, 31-32, Bill Kirtley in 1932-33, 33-34, and 34-35, Raymond Scott in 1935-36, 36-37, Louis French in 1937-38, Harry Niemeyer in 1938-39, 39-40, and Robert Leedy in 1940-41, 41-42, and 42-43.

Ward Crites was coach in 1943-44, 44-45, William Logan in 1945-46, Bob Shank in 1946-47, 47-48, Bill Schlifer in 1948-49, 49-50, and 50-51, Jack Bradford in 1951-52, Walter O'Brien in 1953-54, 54-55, Max Gibbs in 1954-55, 55-56, 56-57, 57-58, Bonner Allee in 1958-59, 59-60, Don Abrams in 1960-61, 61-62, 62-63, 63-64, 64-65, Larry Sparks 1965-66, Warren Fisher in 1966-67 and Bill Compton from 1967-68 through 74-75.

Do you remember old P.H.S. yells?—Pep it up, pep it up, Fight, Fight, Fight, Shake it up, shake it up, Fight, Fight, Fight, Yea, Team, Fight!—A pint, a quart, A ten gallon can, Pittsboro High School, Yea—man.—Stand on a tin can, Stand on a band stand, Who can? We can. Nobody else can! Yea Rah Burros.—Teamwork on the bleachers, Teamwork on the floor, Teamwork makes the baskets, And the baskets makes the score.—Horn and hoof, Horn and hoof, Hold the floor and raise the roof, Razzle, dazzle, zizzle, zip, Yea, Pittsboro, let it rip.—Strawberry shortcake, Gooseberry pie, V I C T O R Y, Are we in it? Well I guess, Fifteen rahs for P H S, Rah, rah, rah, etc.—Big chief, little chief, Papoose, squaw, Pittsboro High School, Rah, rah, rah.

For many years an athletic award based on scholarship sportsmanship, and attitude was given each year to the outstanding athlete in the senior class. At first it was called the American Legion Award, then was changed to the Richard Tanselle award, in honor of Richard Tanselle, a graduate of the class of 1940 who died in World War II. It was a great honor to be chosen for this award.

Pittsboro can boast many trophies and pictures of winning teams through the years. It is to the great credit of team, coach, and student body, that winning or losing, we have a courteous, respectful attitude. Sectional victories in the last two years have made the Burros a much touted team. They have made headlines in county and metropolitan papers and by good team work and all-out effort, they have an excellent record. The coach, Bill Compton, is highly regarded.

As an extra bit of information, the name "Burros" was given by Dortha Bowman, an Alumni of P H S and an enthusiastic member of the "rooters". She and her 3 sisters, 2 nephews (one now a coach) and a niece, Sheri Schaekel are strong defenders of the school. She thought Pittsboro could be used to name the team Burros. It will soon be a thing of the past, but all students and Alumni can look back on the name with pride and nostalgia.

Scholarship has always been stressed and due honor given to those who excelled in their studies. Each year at Commencement exercises, the valedictorian and Salutatorian of the class are announced. It is worthy of note that from the earliest years of the high school, those who were fortunate enough to attend college or other areas of higher education have made good records, some even distinguishing themselves by being chosen for special honors. From the ranks of graduates are men and women in various fields of work, farmers, business men, lawyers, doctors, bankers, teachers, musicians, government employees, grain dealers, truckers, mechanics, pharmacists, actors, veterinarians, plumbers, beauticians, sales people, ministers, grocers, merchants, secretaries, nurses, engineers, artists, photographers, coaches, and so on and so on. In studying the list of graduates, it is hard to find many who are not usefully and gainfully employed. That is a matter of great pride to our school and community.

Among the many changes which have occurred in the 80 years of our existence as a high school is the difference in teachers salaries. Mentioned previously was the sum of $10.00 paid to John Lineberry for a few months teaching; then later teachers received $2 a day. In the early 20's a good salary ranged between $1000 and $1200 annual for an 8 month term. Mr. Girard, principal received a salary of $2500 the first year he was here in 1926-27. In 1930, the Latin and English teacher received $1530, the music teacher less than $1000. In the 30's the coach received $1600. Contract books are enlightening to examine, showing the effect as they do of the economy on the salaries of teachers. During the 40's and 50's there was a decided increase and at the present time, teachers are beginning to be paid more nearly what they have deserved. Salary schedules for recent years indicate that teachers with experience and an A B Degree can earn from $7000 to $9000, with a Master's Degree the salary scale runs much higher.

In the 50's the most important, as well as the most controversial issue to confront our township was the question of consolidation. The theory of "bigger and better" schools was sweeping the country during the late 40's and 50's. In many ways it was not new as the same idea was a reality in the 1900's, when many country schools were abandoned and pupils brought into the Pittsboro Schools. It was called centralization. Many citizens studied the plan of consolidation with open minds. As happened in many communities, there was a difference of opinion which resulted in personal grievances. There were several open meetings in the school building, statistics were presented, and arguments ensued. The first step taken was the appointment of a central committee from the county and the first suggestion made was the consolidation of Pittsboro and Brownsburg Schools. This met with definite opposition.

A question that kept recurring was "What is wrong with our school in its present status?" "Why can't we continue as we are?" "We have good teachers and a good school." "Our students go away to college and many of them distinguish themselves." On the other side of the argument were the inducements offered by a bigger school, more modern facilities, better equipment, varied curriculum, better opportunities, more teachers with advanced degrees.

Mr. Floyd Burroughs was the last principal employed by a township trustee, Mr. Merle Hendricks, and it was his sad lot to serve during this difficult time. He will be remembered for his patience, his dedication to his task as principal and teacher and his loyalty to the school. The division in the community was a tragic conclusion to the 10 years he spent as principal.

On November 6, 1962, a vote to consolidate with Center, Marion, Eel River and Union Townships was rejected with Middle Township voting 147 for and 683 against consolidation. A vote to consolidate with Union and Eel River Townships was passed May 5, 1964. In Middle Township, the vote was 259 for consolidation and 169 against. The first School Board was composed of the trustees of the three townships; Lamar Hartman, later replaced by Gerald Studley after his resignation, Eel River, Marvin Adams, Middle and Keith Herring, Union. They served two years until the first election of a school board. This board hired Mr. Bruno Lupato as Superintendent of Schools. He remained two years.

The first elected school board was elected in May, 1966. It was composed of one member from each district and two at large. They were: District 1—Merle Hendricks who was elected for a two year term, District 2—Donald Hitch, District 3—Harold Power. At-large—Robert Porter and Herschel Gentry, Jr. elected for a two year term. After the first election, the members were elected for a four year term. This board hired Mr. John Crick as administrator of the consolidated school district. Mr. Crick is an experienced educator and has served with ability and wisdom. The task of welding three townships into a functioning consolidation has not been easy, but the efforts of the school board and the superintendent are sincerely appreciated.

Reports of subsequent elections are as follows: Elected in May, 1968, District 1—Herschel Gentry, Jr., At-large—Devon Jackson. Elected in May 1970—District 2—Donald Hitch, District 3—Jerry Bishop, At-large—Jack Lee. This board authorized the purchase of ground for the new high school building. The Jewel Leachman farm extending south on State Road 39 and east on U.S. 136 at Lizton was bought in 1970; 72 plus acres for the amount of $89,000. James and Associates were hired as Architects. They had built the new elementary building at Pittsboro at a cost of $355,000. In May, 1972 Robert Bray was elected from District 1, Devon Jackson at large. Due to the resignation of Jerry Bishop, Steven Ross was appointed as District 3 member. This board started construction of the new high school which will be known as Tri-West Hendricks. Elected in May 1974, were District 3, Steven Ross; District 2, James Hall, At-large, Jack Lee.

Side Lines And By Lines

After we become a part of Tri-West Hendricks, it will be a pleasure to look back on the days when we were a high school and know that we were always marching abreast of the times. The first regular band uniforms were purchased in 1953-54 at a cost of $30 to $35 per uniform. The new uniforms for next year will cost $136 each. The first majorettes were Carolyn Sue Lindley and Thelma Yelton Hunter. In the years following many girls served as majorettes, among them Shirley Swain Boles, Jean Scamahorn Abbott, Sharon Wagoner Reynolds, Carolyn Hinshaw Adams, Patty Smith Cales, Mary Jo Reynolds Mendenhall, Sharon Miller, Cindy Raney, Peggy Thompson, Susie Trent O'Maley, Donna McClung Herring, Darlene Dillon, Sandra Hiland Marsh, Jeanne Niggel, Janet Edwards Marsh, and Sharon Stevenson Hague.

One of the most active extra curricular organizations is the Sunshine Society which Mrs. Zelma Heinig organized and sponsored for many years. Their creed is indicative of the high ideals which the girls strive to have: "With love in my heart, forgetting self, and with charity for all, I will make the object of my life helpfulness and kindness to others. I shall try to get myself to give intelligent service in making my community a safer and more beautiful place in which to live. Thus will my own life become rich and complete." Their motto is "Others". Each year the girls select an Ideal Lady and between them there is a happy exchange of greetings and gifts until the Sunshine girls reveal themselves at the spring meeting.

A List Of Firsts To Remember:

The Pittsboro High School was organized in 1894. The first teacher was Mrs. Mamie Reynolds Spees.

The first school room was the hall over the brick store where Larry Lovell had his barber shop.
The first male teacher was A.L.H. Miller.
The first graduates were Oscar Reynolds, Norman Worrell, James Flaherty, Charles Kress and Maude Hughes Newman.

The first graduates from the four year high school were Carroll McDonald and Edwin Terrell.
The first graduates from a four year commissioned high school was the class of 1917.
The first music teacher was Mrs. Martha Harvey King here in 1914, next was Sarah McClain Money.
The first gym was built in 1919-20.
The first home game was played in 1920.
The first girl graduate was Maude Hughes Newman in 1897.
The first Alumni banquet was held in 1912.
The first Alumni Scholarship medal was won by Elizabeth Yeager Dillon.
The first county tourney played at Pittsboro in 1923.
The first sectional ever won by Pittsboro was in 1922.
The first trustee who was an Alumnus of PHS was Edgar Parker.
The first Alumnus to become a doctor was Aubrey Pebworth (1898).
The first senior play was given by the class of 1917.
The first school paper was published in 1903.
The first Junior High School was organized in 1921.
The first child of an Alumni of PHS as Blanche Ashby 1915.
The first grandchild of an Alumni to graduate was Ronald Montgomery 1944, grandson of Pearl Cowley 1901.

The first principal to receive a salary of more than $2000 was J.P. Girard in 1931.
The first class to have military training was in 1918 under teacher Leo Fitzgerald.
The first superintendent of schools to be employed by the school board was Bruno Lupato.
The first school board was elected in 1962.
The first members from PHS on the school board were Herschel Gentry, Jr. and Merle Hendricks.
The first husband and wife team to teach in PHS was Glen and Helen Staton.
In 1905 school was stopped on account of an epidemic of small pox.
In 1918 school was stopped because of the flu epidemic.

A play entitled "Uncle Dick's Mistake" was a great success, given by the high school and netting $22.50. (1905) A play given by the Alumni Association in the late 1920's was a great success and netted more than $200. Entitled "His Uncle's Niece." The first senior class play in 1917 was entitled "The Varsity Coach."

In January 1904 a big oratorical contest was held at the Christian Church. Here are samples of some of the titles: "Napolean the Great" by Esther Wells McConnaha, mother of Margaret Gregory, grandmother of Gary Gregory and great grandmother of Mike and Teryl Gregory. "Spartacus to the Gladiators" given by Blaine Brumfield, father of the actor, Jon Brumfield (or Bromfield).

In 1904, Maude Worrell Staneart, recently deceased, wrote a modern version of Women's Lib on "The Ambition of Women". Quoting directly from her article, "If it were not for the ambition of women, society would lose fully one half the development which it has already attained." Even years ago ERA had its followers.

Along with many other activities in which PHS has always excelled is the fact that it was the first high school in the county to have a school paper. To verify that, consult the January copy, 1904 of the "Pittsboro High School Star." Not only was it the first paper, but it was interesting and cleverly written, the work of the students, containing editorials on current subjects, original poems, lots of jokes, athletic notes, mainly football, many personals especially in reference to boy and girl cases. All the businesses in Pittsboro put in their ads: Livery stable, millinery, physician and dentists, general merchants, horse blankets, farmers and restaurants. Reading these brings information about our town in the good old days, and makes us increasingly proud to be a part of it now.

This is the time to pay modest tribute to our present principal, Mr. Dan Zielinski, who has served well for nine years, maintained excellent discipline, being fair in his dealings with parent and student, heartily endorsing school activities, offering excellent opportunities to students. His competent staff is as follows: Bill Compton, whose success as a coach is well known, Reva Clancy, Charleen Purdy, Betty Leak, John Osborn, Sharon Reynolds, Hartsel Newell, Sandra Claghorn, Larry Lamb, Larry Sparks, Judith Anderson, Rod Ely, David Morphew, Donna Gentry, Vicky Williams, Robert Lang, Barbara Wilson, Kathleen Brandt, George Curry, Clyde McKee, Principal of Elementary, Wanda Wilson, Shirley Osborn, Becky Patterson, Shari Ward, Barbara Peters, Linda Brooks, Marsha Holcomb, Jackie Sparks, Bill Livengood, Mary Lou Priebe, Doris Martin, Jeanne Weeks, Sandra Ely and teacher's aide, Rosann Zielinski.

More than 80 years have come and gone since the first class met in the old hall over the grocery store. We can look back with happiness and pride to those years and we can treasure the memories of this, our school. Graduates which now number more than 1500 are living proof of the quality of education they received in Pittsboro High School, through the lives they have lived and the attainments they have reached. All we can say in conclusion (along with Bob Hope) is "THANKS FOR THE MEMORY".

Written by Frances Weaver Fisher Class of 1917

Pittsboro High School (1897-1915)

A Little Rhyme Concerning the Students Who Were Graduated from That Seat of Learning during the years of 1897 through 1915)

"Backward, turn backward, O! Time in your flight,"
Make us all pupils just for tonight,
Take us speedily back o'er eighteen swift years,
The memory of which brings laughter and tears,
Back to the first class which honored this school
By completing the course prescribed by rule.

Four bright boys there were and one splendid girl—
James Flaherty, Oscar Reynolds,
Chas. Kress and Norman Worrell.
The girl that was mentioned was Miss Maud Hughes,
But as Mrs. Newman she now sends her dues.
The same Instructress for two years had these—
A talented woman, then Reynolds, now Spees—
Who established the high school in Junken Hall,
And because of her zeal was admired by all.
Of A.L.H. Miller they took the third year—
A smiling bachelor, by some girls thought dear,
To Sawyer's Hall he wended his way,
To instruct those pupils from day to day.

Again four boys and one girl were destined by fate
To graduate in the year of ninety-eight.
They received instructions from Mr. Matheny,
The youngest in the class was named Murat Keeney,
Thomas Dillon, too, was of the studious mind,
While Aubrey Pebworth to his pipe inclined.
There was Mary Dugan, true to the very heart's core,
And Fred Worrell whose lessons of life are all o'er.
To the dear old building they hurried each day—
Fourteen more classes have gone the same way—
In the west room, upstairs, Caesar's allies they slew
And over geometry made quite a stew.

Two earnest young men and four ladies, fine,
Composed the class in the year ninety-nine.
Patrick Dugan was fond of school work,
While Allen Keeney would never shirk.
And Mrs. Rankin, then Anna Hession,
Was faithful, too, seldom missing a session;
Estella Shirley made the figures fly,
Stella Titus is the name she now goes by.
Carrie Brent was gifted with social grace,
As Carrie Stephenson she now fills her place.
Nor of Eunice Brumfield could any complain,
She now answers the name of Eunice McClain.
With Miller, the teacher, there was seldom a clash,
Though they sometimes did smile at his stunning mustache.

Class number four was composed of four girls—
Fond of music and fun and curls.

Three of these lassies have changed their name,
But Miss Ethel Whitsett remains the same.
Nellie Waters, though, must have been a good planner,
After years of single bliss she became a Danner.
Anna Buergelein soon changed to Mrs. Smith,
And it would not do to complete the list
Without telling how hard the fates did plan
To make Hattie Halfaker become a Wehrman.

Speaking of work and mischief and fun
Brings to mind the class of nineteen-one,
Composed of five boys and one thoughtful lass,
Merril and Frank Wills belong to this class.
Carl Waters was there and Forrest Bradshaw—
One is now a teacher while the other doth saw,
And Chester Junken and Pearl Thornbrough,
The latter became Mrs. Cowley, though.
At the close of this year, Miller's reign was o'er
So he left the town to return no more.
Courageous was he, strangely free from fears,
No other teacher has stayed more than two years.

Of happier classes there have been but few
Than the wonderful class of nineteen-two.
Of the good times we had I could write a volume
Though restricted, alas, to one short column.
How much of the scolding and courting and fun
Was recorded in rhyme by Ethel Jackson—
Or Ruth Case whacked Watson's knuckles for a book,
Or we laid Miss Schenck's piggie in a secluded nook,
How Eva chose to carry it, the one most stout and slow,
The one who stands before you by the name of Alice Lowe,
Or Jackson turned a basket o'er the head of Jessie Walter
She struggled to escape as a calf would from a halter.
And if Miss Nora Ridgway was less wicked than the rest
She was a splendid second as perhaps you may have guessed.
Now Miss Alcie Ridgway we confess was not so bad
Though mischief, let me tell, was with all of us a fad.
Just the same we earned diplomas, I say that is no myth,
If you do not believe it just inquire of J.C. Smith,
We were so busy we'd scarce time to strike a match.
Of the nine there still remaineth
Four glad maidens and one batch.

In the next class were two ladies fair,
With charming ways and golden hair.
When Florence Booker became Mrs. Cline,
Her husband, no doubt, thought her head a gold mine.

While Nannie Worrell's smile was so bright
 It gave Harris, her husband much delight.
 But those fair girls were by no means all
 There were four boys, three dark and all tall,
 Clarence Sawyer was too well beloved to pass by
 Though soon promoted from earth's school to one on high.
 There was Urban Olsen who played hookey on Friday,
 And Ernest Buergelein always shining and tidy,
 And Aubrey Moore with his fluent speech,
 We might have known he was bound to preach.
 Frank Thomas, the teacher, though greatly admired,
 By early spring of his task was tired.

No larger class has held the floor
 Than the famous class of nineteen-four,
 Composed of six lads and four bright lasses,
 It was one of the best of many strong classes.
 There was Grant Martin and Chester Pike,
 And Clayr Alexander, who all worked alike,
 And Carl McDaniel and the Brumfield boys,
 Ernest and Blaine, with their pranks and noise.
 Bertha Thompson was there—she is now Mrs. Prebster—
 And Grace Hott Houk, most as wise as Webster.
 Maude Worrell also you are sure to find,
 And Esther Wells, quite jolly and kind,
 The former is now Mrs. Duscond, gay,
 While the latter is Esther McConnaha.
 Through theorems and history there led this clan
 Professor O'Mara, a gifted young man.

Earnest, industrious and much alive,
 Describes the class of nineteen-five.
 With George A. Keeney at the head of the school
 Most of the work was done by rule.
 There was Loyal Schenck and Charley Ginn,
 Neither of these thought work any sin,
 Nor was Edna Taylor counted a lazy bones,
 By the way her name is now Edna Jones.
 There was Fred A. Parker of Maplewood,
 Fond of work and usually good,
 And Emma Goodson thoughtful and true,
 Her name was changed to Burris, too.
 Now stilled, forever is that loyal heart,
 In life's great drama she's finished her part.

Prominent in the class of nineteen-six
 Was Miss Ruth Janes, now Mrs. Hicks,
 Ernest Walter, broad of both body and mind,
 Letha Booker, generally loving and kind.
 And last and least came Ernest Alexander,
 Whose monkey-shines raised Professor's dander.
 When this handsome class had pictures taken
 Mr. Foland's hat was by rude winds shaken
 So hard in fact, that it flew away
 And has ne'er been found to the present day.

Next to puzzle their pretty heads
 O'er History and Latin were five co-eds,
 All these girls liked to study some,
 Miss Edna Duncan worked hard on gum,
 While Edna McDaniel struck her best licks
 On elocution, she's now Mrs. Hicks.
 Ruth Ridgway thought much of a certain boy,
 Keeping house for Stipe is now her joy.
 Nellie Neaville, too, liked to study "amo,"
 Olsen, her husband, was then her beau.
 Though in this charming class was not a mean one,
 There was a good girl named Jennie Keenan,
 All useful and happy they are making good,
 As Professor Foland believed they would.

Once more ten pupils appeared on the stage
 To add to this history another page.
 Six girls there were and four young men,
 Mrs. Templin, Elsie Stipe it was then,
 And Anna Goodson and Mary Hale,
 Now Mrs. Elrod so runs the tale.
 And Nettie Hunt and Lutie Gandy,
 And Cleo Lambert, sweet as candy,
 Will Martin, too, and Everett Thornbrough,
 John Smith, who would a-courting go,
 Then add to the list Earl McConnaha
 And you have a fine group for work or play;
 George Lewis, the teacher, was justly proud
 To hand diplomas to all this crowd.

Sweet girl graduates furnish the theme
 For another stanza, so it would seem;
 There were three in the class of nineteen-nine,
 Securing knowledge at learning's shrine.
 There was Lottie Ridgeway without a care
 Keeping books in the bank she now has her share.
 While Edith McClung has troubles enough
 Teaching Latin declensions and all such stuff.
 There was one in the class that was named Verne Ellis
 Who would rather trim hats than to entertain fellows.
 Of noble purpose and well trained mind
 Was Professor Alley, in their memories enshrined.
 Yet there happened along to guide the next four
 A brand new instructor by the name of John Moore.

Sweet girl graduates again smiled and bowed,
 A boy, however, appeared in the crowd;
 There was Hazel Vice, an accomplished musician,
 Myrtle Sallee, whose charm won a horse physician.
 Merle Woody, who should a notary be
 So fond of writing "wills" is she.
 Kind, Earnest and helpful was Roy Elmore
 Who was recently called to the other shore.

Of the fifteenth class what shall we say?
 Why they finished their tasks without delay.
 There was Claud Linton and Chester Parker,
 Both good students and one a good sparker,
 Dallas Terrell was there and Russell Hale—
 The way they've started they're not likely to fail,
 While Alice Ridgway did her part
 In a way that warmed Professor Moore's heart.

Nine handsome youngsters there were to delve
 For learning's treasures in nineteen-twelve.
 There was Daniel Leonard and Lora Wynkoop,
 Charles Stanley, who laughed when the ponies kicked up,
 Otis Pierson, James Ashby and Walter Reed,
 Who sometimes felt for good ponies the need.
 Clara Woody was present and Minnie McClung,
 And Fern Linton, who has started to the ladder's top rung.
 Now beauty 'tis said is a good reason for being,
 This class you'll admit was sight worth seeing.
 John Sullivan who had finished at the C.N.C.
 Was conscientious and studious as teacher need be.

Of jolly pedagogues there never was one
 To compare with Westerfield who looks like a bun
 Or a fat soda biscuit he resembles most nearly
 As wise observers can see quite clearly.
 The first was he to require an assistant,
 Miss McClung was chosen, reserved and distant.
 By combining their efforts they turned out two
 From a four-years' course, a feature new.
 Carroll McDonald who in a contest won
 And Edwin Terrell, a physician's son,
 Composed the class in the year fourteen
 At the fine new building, well equipped and clean.

Now Geometry and Physics are thought not enough
 While Latin is branded mostly hard work and bluff,
 Even History and Literature do not satisfy
 So Domestic Science is the thought best to try.
 Agriculture, too, for the bright farmer boys,
 Both music and drawing also add to life's joys.
 That proper instruction all students might gain
 Two teachers were added Misses Nichols and McClain.
 Since this year's class has so much work and four teachers
 We extend our sympathy to the poor abused creatures.
 One teacher with bad eyes used to scold enough—
 To have four with good eyes must be very tough.
 But one plucky girl and three lads brave
 Have managed somehow their heads to save.
 Not one in the bunch could be called a greeney;
 Verla Crawley, Paul Jordan, and Thomas Feeney,
 And Miss Blanche Ashby, a Pittsboro Belle
 To one hundred and two our ranks will swell.

Our Alumni, though scattered throughout this broad land,
 Are united no doubt by a strong golden band,
 That of loyalty true to their fond Alma Mater,
 May each coming year make her better and greater,
 May her fair daughters grow in knowledge and grace,
 And her sons strong and noble each win in life's race.
 May the teachers remember that their calling is sacred
 Ever casting out wrong, dishonor and hatred,
 In good will and harmony striving each day
 To build character fit for eternity.

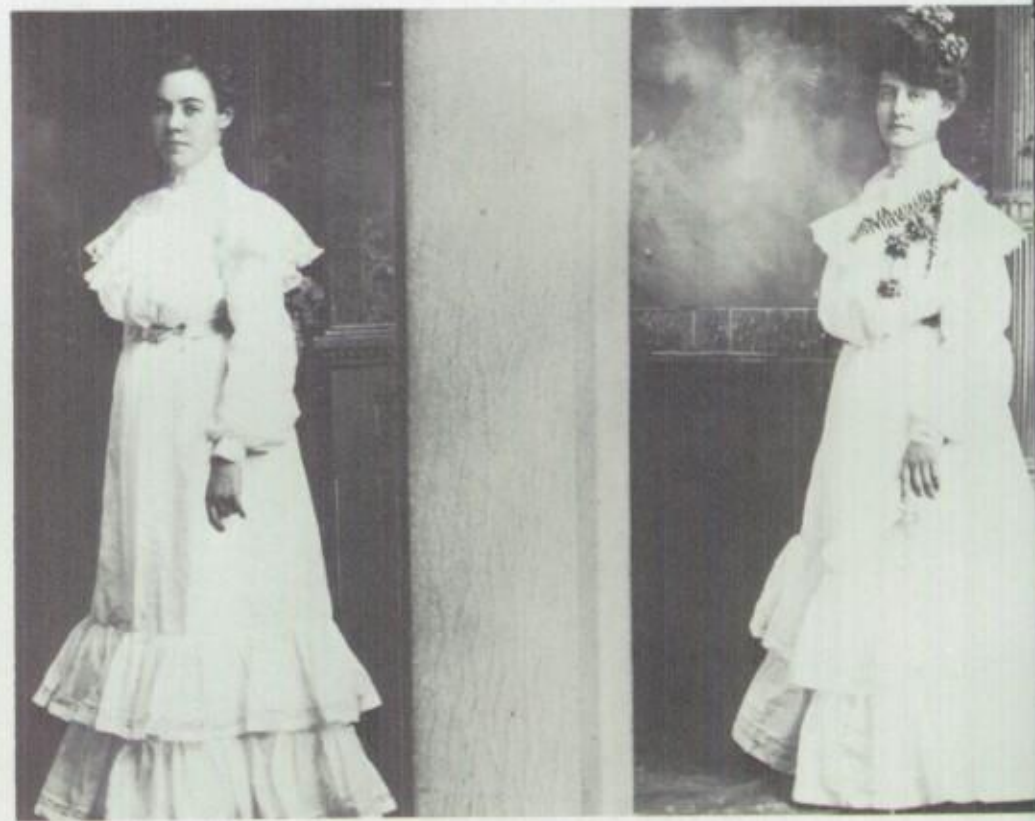

Written by Alice Lowe.

NOTICE—It was impossible to find a group picture of all the graduates from 1897 through 1916 so we have used group pictures with most of the graduates of a particular year. In the index beginning on page LIV, we will list the graduates of each year and identify the students in each picture.
